

The United States Martial Tactical Association and Suishinkan Presents:

MARTIAL TACTICAL TRAINING FORCE-ON-FORCE USE OF FORCE

Way Beyond Martial "Arts"

WHAT: Modern day reality based martial tactical training for personal protection. Specialized training seminar specifically designed for today's private citizens. Training fundamentals will include both armed and unarmed practical solutions geared toward aggressive encounters. The tactics and techniques covered will include applications of recommended modern daily carry items and their unarmed equivalents. Participants will be introduced to interactive Force-on-Force and Use of Force training with and without firearms. These unique protection technologies are taught to elite Military, Law Enforcement, & Security personnel. Note: Do not confuse or compare this type of specialized training with common self-defense or martial "arts" methods.

Participants will have the opportunity to try the IES interactive shooting simulator.
